

YOUNG WRITERS WORKSHOP for Grades 3-5

Creative Writing Workshop after school on Wednesdays at Parmalee!

Join us for a fun and productive creative writing workshop that will help young writers create original works of poetry, fiction, nonfiction and screenplays. Students will read many examples of great writing and spend the majority of their time writing and revising their own projects, always taking time out to share their writing with each other at the end of each class. Students will follow prompts for guided writing and pursue the creation of their own works based solely on their imagination. Led by a local author and experienced writing teacher.

Save the dates for fall sessions:

Session 1: 9/13, 9/20, 9/27, 10/4, 10/11, and 10/18

Session 2: 10/25, 11/1, 11/8, 11/15, 11/29 and 12/6.

All sessions in Ms. Matteuci's classroom

Note: Students participating in the Young Writers Conference as a Homework Extension Project may turn their writing from this class into a book for the Conference, however participation in the conference is not required.

Classes will be held on Wednesdays from 3:35-4:45 in Ms. Matteuci's classroom.

Sign up soon! Space is limited to 12 students.

Financial assistance is available! For more info and to sign up, email Candace

Read

candacekearnsread@gmail.com